Sunday 9/18/16

9:00 - 12:00

1:00 - 4:00

This training is the 1st half of 2 course extensive training on how to use the Great Yoga Wall™ system in your own practice as well in the classroom. The intensives are appropriate for both yoga teachers and students at any experience level. You will learn how to use the Yoga Wall™ for standing poses, inversions, back bends, forward bends and twists. You will also learn how the Yoga Wall™ can be used for a variety of therapeutic yoga applications. The workshop size is limited so you get individual attention. You will get a certificate of completion at the end that applies to our 200 and 500 hour yoga teacher training certification program.

Bryan Legere was the founder of the Ventura Yoga Studio, holds a Intermediate Iyengar Yoga Certification and is one of the founders of The Great Yoga Wall™, Inc. He has been a National Iyengar Yoga Certification Assessor since 1994 and has been to India many times to study yoga at the Iyengar's. He began practicing yoga in the late 70's and started teaching in 1984. He teaches yoga teacher trainings, workshops and has led yoga retreats through out the United States and internationally.

Location: 3 OM RANCH, You will drive or fly into Redmond Oregon. We recommend the SLEEP INN as a place to stay. There are lots of others. They are the closest on in Redmond to our yoga Studio.
